

Humphrey Gets Role of Favorite

By JERRY BAULCH
Associated Press Writer
Hubert Humphrey's bid to return to the Senate, Maryland Sen. Joseph Tydings' fight to stay there, and races for top political posts in Massachusetts highlight primary elections in six states today.

Humphrey, former vice president who lost the 1968 presidential election, carried the role of heavy favorite in his campaign to win the Democratic nomination for a Senate seat in Minnesota.

Another top Democratic name, Sen. Edward M. Kennedy of Massachusetts, was unopposed for renomination but political observers will keep an eye on the size of the vote Kennedy garners.

Generally, incumbents running for Senate seats and governorships are expected to make it to the Nov. 3 general election. Tydings, a Democrat who was accused in a recent Life magazine article of misusing his influence in an overseas loan transaction, is battling a perennial candidate, George P. Mahoney. Because of the article, the race may be closer than expected, although Tydings is favored to win.

But several factors are working against the senator, including a heavy campaign against him by the gun lobby because of his stand on gun legislation and his sponsorship of a crime bill for the District of Columbia that liberal Democrats opposed.

Rep. J. Glenn Beall Jr., 43, son of the man Tydings unseated in 1964, is favored to win the GOP nomination over two opponents.

In Massachusetts, Boston Mayor Kevin H. White, 44, and state Senate President Maurice A. Donahue, 59, were in a four-way Democratic race to face incumbent GOP Gov. Francis W. Sargent, unopposed in the primary.

Both Senate and statehouse are at stake in primaries in Rhode Island, Maryland and Minnesota in addition to Massachusetts. Washington state has a Senate race but none for governor.

Juvenile Court Is Discussed

Herbert Thrash and Ed Alderman

Andy Andrews and Paul Morgan

The Juvenile Court and its work was discussed Monday at the Town & Country at the Lions Club luncheon hour by Larry Patterson, local attorney.

Mr. Patterson discussed two broad groups of cases. The first included children who were undernourished or victims of abuse from parents, or children who by their own actions were suspected of having mental problems. These cases are usually brought to the attention of the court by neighbors or anyone having contact with the people or having knowledge of unusual circumstances.

The second broad group discussed were the juvenile delinquents, whom if adult, would be called criminals, observed Mr. Patterson.

Cases involving this group are brought to the court's attention by the police who have been alerted by the victims. Since the young offenders names do not appear in newspapers because state law protects them from this, there is little knowledge of some unusual cases and while this is good in some respects, Mr. Patterson said providing names would have a different effect by alerting parents.

The court meets twice a month and handles about 85 cases a year. Mr. Patterson also discussed the drug problem and concluded with a question and answer session. The program was arranged by Don Freil.

New members Paul Morgan and Ed Alderman were introduced by their sponsors.

Paul Henley, director of the City Parks & Recreation department spoke briefly on activities of the Senior Citizens Club and the Golden Age Club.

Ward Indicted in Case of Bankruptcy

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Lee Ward of Jonesboro, a lawyer and unsuccessful candidate for governor in 1958, has been indicted by the U.S. Grand Jury for the Eastern District of Arkansas for allegedly concealing assets in a bankruptcy case.

The indictment, returned Thursday in Little Rock and made public Monday, said that Ward "knowingly and fraudulently" concealed from bankruptcy officials $1,400 belonging to the estate of Mrs. Nina Pauline Black of Jonesboro, who the indictment said was represented by Ward in bankruptcy proceedings.

Mrs. Black filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy Feb. 25, 1969, in U.S. District Court at Jonesboro, according to the indictment.

The indictment said Mrs. Black had "substantial property" including $1,400 in cash that was in the possession of Ward.

The indictment said that from the time of the adjudication of Mrs. Black as a bankrupt and until the date of the indictment, "only a part of the assets have been made available to the officers of the court ... and to creditors of the said bankrupt ..."

Students at AM&N Discuss Problems

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — The first student general assembly of the school year was held Monday at Arkansas AM&N College here. Students spent most of the meeting discussing money problems facing the school.

Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller said last week that the predominantly Negro college was suffering "very serious financial problems." He said "poor financial management, including deficit spending, and some evidence of highly questionable practices from a legal point of view" had been reported to him.

State auditors and members of the state Administration Department have been working at the college to determine the extent of the financial problems and to come up with solutions.

Larry Patterson

Dr. Max Milam, director of the Administration Department, said overdue bills appeared to be about $900,000. College President Dr. Lawrence A. Davis has said the college's financial problems might force a cutback in the enrollment and staff.

Monday's student meeting was called by the Student Government Association.

Woodson Walker, president of the association, told the group that whatever the student government might do would depend on the outcome of the investigation by auditors.

He said the college was one of the last predominantly black schools in the state and as such was vital to preservation of black racial character and integrity.

SCA Misused $112,350, HEW Reports

CONWAY, Ark. (AP) — The Department of Health, Education and Welfare today released an audit that indicated $112,350 in federal funds had been misused by officials at State College of Arkansas here.

The audit also questioned the use of another $78,393 in salaries and $5,232 in indirect program costs.

The report also contained many specific recommendations for controlling the expenditure of federal money.

The federal audit followed a state Legislative Auditing Committee audit that called the college's bookkeeping system "sloppy." Legislators refused to accept an SCA audit in July until the college began using standard bookkeeping procedures.

"Grants from the United States government are not incorporated in the general ledger and auditing in connection with such grants must be done through source documents and other related correspondence," state auditors said. The state auditors noted that there was no posting of the general ledger from July 1, 1969, to Jan. 1, 1970.

The HEW auditors said they "found the legislative audit's description of the deficiencies in the accounting system accurate." The federal auditors also expressed alarm at the slack method of expending federal funds.

The HEW auditors said the $112,350 was spent without proper authorization according to HEW guidelines and that the $78,393 in salaries was of questionable authorization.

The audit showed that federal grants made up a large part of SCA's $2,464,090 budget from 1968 to Aug. 1, 1970.

During the period, the government allocated $338,672 for training programs such as the Teacher Corps and for research. The audit covered from Nov. 1, 1966, to Aug. 31, 1969.

"Considering the average expenditure of HEW funds during the years audited, $300,000 per year, we believe the need for an adequate accounting system to insure the proper administration of these funds is self evidence," HEW officials said.

The federal audit listed more than 30 specific expenditures the report said were unauthorized under HEW guidelines.

Hearing on Restraining Order Set

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Federal Judge G. Thomas Eisele is to hold a hearing Wednesday on a motion for a temporary restraining order filed by attorneys for 14 black youths at Earle.

The youths contend there is racial discrimination in the school system at Earle and that protests by black persons are being suppressed. The motion was filed Monday.

The youths made the allegation in a suit filed Thursday following a walkout by black students and the arrest of 26 on charges of parading without a permit. A march by Negroes Thursday ended when shots rang out.

The youths are seeking a temporary restraining order to prohibit the Earle School Board from:

- "Maintaining segregation by classroom."
- "Sponsoring and maintaining activities and programs operated on a racially discriminatory basis."
- "Demoting or otherwise discriminating against" black faculty members.

ANTI-LITTER PROGRAM BLOCKED

Dear Helen: Yesterday my brother and I went around the neighborhood to pick up all the trash that was carelessly thrown around the streets and vacant lots. When we got home with our wagon load, our mother told us we had to stop because she paid for garbage collection and extra boxes meant extra charges, so she wasn't going to shell out for the neighbors. Well, I see her point, but how do teens get an anti-litter program started when there's no place to dump the junk? — CONCERNED ABOUT LITTER Dear Concerned: If you tell City Hall about your anti-litter campaign, I'm quite sure pick-ups will be provided. Give the mayor a ring, and who knows, your idea might develop into a city-wide program. — H.

Dear Helen:

My boy friend does something that really bugs me. After bringing me home from a date (around midnight), he goes to different hangouts and drinks beer with the kids (male and female until sometimes five a.m. I'm afraid his folks think he is with me all that time. In a few days I begin hearing how drunk he got with his so-called friends. He doesn't try to hide this from me, but I think it's dirty of a guy to go out by himself after he takes his girl home. If I'm wrong, I'll get off his back about it. — BUGGED Dear Bugged: You're right, but "getting on a boy's back about it" may only drive him to more partying. "Sauce for the goose" might work better. Tell him you must be home by 11:30 because "a bunch of kids are planning something for later." (And if he asks to come along—well, you've got another problem.) — H.

Dear Helen: Are you in favor of pop or rock festivals? I'm not! My ex-boy friend went to Woodstock and came back a drug addict. That's why he is my ex. He just couldn't quit LSD, so he moved to the Village to be closer to the supply. I moaned and groaned for a long time, but finally met someone else and we're very happy. But I still have an empty feeling when I think of this guy who was so great until that Woodstock trip messed him up. He may be dead or dying for all I know. I don't see how the police or authorities can allow rock festivals to take place. — CATHIE

Dear Cathie:

I think you're blaming Woodstock for an "addiction" that might have happened anyway. One rock festival doesn't permanently turn a fellow to drugs, unless the inclination is already there: He would have experimented whether he went on that trip or not, and only his basic weakness made him continue. The day of the super-big festival is over for two reasons: Local authorities are afraid of them, and they're financial disasters (unless planners can recoup with a documentary). As for smaller ones, why not? They're less dangerous, a good deal more peaceful and probably more fun than were 1960's booze and beer busts during Easter week at Ft. Lauderdale. — H.

Whisky and Boozie

The term booze for whisky originated from the fact that bottles produced by a glass factory in Glassboro, N.J., were filled by a Philadelphia distiller named E. C. Booz. The bottles became known as "Booz" bottles and eventually "booze" crept into the American language as a synonym for whisky.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer NEW YORK (AP) — Viewers who have enjoyed Red Skelton's nonsense—and kept him on the air for 20 years—undoubtedly will continue to enjoy him in his new half hour series that made its debut on NBC Monday night. It is a concentration of dose of Skelton's talents.

In chopping the program from its CBS form of one hour, the long sketches have been pruned and so have most of the elaborate production numbers and the chorus.

The premiere opened with Vice President Spiro T. Agnew in a brief introduction. Skelton appeared in his usual dinner jacket and his opening monologue was just like old times including the inevitable Gertrude and Heathcliff seagull story.

In honor of the occasion, Red introduced a new comedy character, Dr. Ludwig von Humperdoo. He seems to be a combination of that excitable scientist that Sid Caesar used to play and Prof. Ludwig von Drake, the Disney character.

Skelton did a sort of imitation of W.C. Fields in one brief sketch but the big comedy number was supposed to be the silent spot where he worked with guest Jerry Lewis as a maladroitness magician and assistant. It was one of those things in which everything went wrong. Red ended up with raw egg on his coat and the sketch apparently was never finished because the box in which Lewis was to be sawed in half tipped over. It wasn't a very good sketch anyway: Skelton's fine pantomime skills weren't even tapped.

Police to Get Federal Money

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Three police departments and two state agencies have been awarded $36,700 in federal funds from the Governor's Commission on Crime and Law Enforcement. Receiving the funds were the state Department of Correction, the Arkansas Law Enforcement Training Academy, and the police departments at Texarkana, Magnolia and Hot Springs. Cassius in Another Big Victory

NEW YORK (AP)—Cassius Clay, fighting to fight, has scored another victory toward receiving a license to fight in New York.

Federal Judge R. Mansfield ruled Monday against the New York State Athletic Commission, which had refused to renew Clay's boxing license last Oct. 14. Last Thursday he signed to fight Jerry Quarry Oct. 26 in Atlanta, the only place Clay now has a license to fight.

Clay, who has been having legal fights ever since he was stripped of his heavyweight championship after being convicted and sentenced to five years in prison, June 20, 1967, for refusing induction into military service.

Clay's appeal of the conviction still is pending.

In another legal jab, Clay brought suit, under the name of Muhammad Ali, after the New York Athletic Commission refused to renew his license on the grounds that although it had licensed boxers convicted of felonies, those fighters had served time.

"I'm just glad to hear it," Clay said in Philadelphia when informed of Judge Mansfield's decision. "I'm not thinking about that now. I'm busy getting ready for Quarry. I can't have too many things on my mind."

Clay would not comment on whether he would now apply for a New York license, but his attorney, Michael Meltsner, said here, "Every effort will be made to arrange a fight with a suitable opponent in New York State."

"That's good news to me," said Yank Durham, champion Joe Frazier's manager, told The Associated Press by telephone from New Orleans.

A New York license for Clay would make a Clay-Frazier bout even more attractive. Frazier's next fight will be a title defense against light heavyweight King Bob Foster in November.

Edwin B. Dooley, chairman of the New York State commission, said he did not know what action the commission would take until a study is made of Judge Mansfield's written opinion which said:

"The commission's contention that the recentness of Ali's conviction provides adequate basis for denying him a license is without merit... The commission's own records revealed it had not made such a distinction in its disposition of other applications."

The commission had denied Ali his rights under the 14th Amendment to equal protection of the laws of the State of New York.

Clay won the heavyweight title by knocking out Sonny Liston in Miami Beach, Fla. Feb. 25, 1964. His last title fight was a seventh-round knockout of Zora

Met Win, in Virtual Tie With Pirates

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer
Defense, says Gil Hodges, could be the name of the game in the final stages of the National League's East Division title countdown.

To prove his point, the New York Mets keep digging in, holding the line ... and scooping up everyone else's fumbles. "Our defense has picked up so much in recent games," the Mets' manager said before Monday night's game against the Montreal Expos. "A thing like that goes unnoticed, but it shows up in your pitching. The pitching looks so much stronger."

Then the Mets backed Danny Frisella's solid relief pitching with airtight play in the field before capitalizing on a Montreal defensive breakdown for four unearned runs in the 10th inning and a 9-5 victory that sent them into a virtual first-place deadlock with the Pittsburgh Pirates.

New York trails the Pirates by less than one percentage point, with the third-place Chicago Cubs, who also had the day off, one game off the pace.

Los Angeles snapped San Diego's five-game winning string 12-4 and San Francisco outlasted Atlanta 7-5 in the only other games played Monday night.

Two scheduled American League games—California at Minnesota and Oakland at Milwaukee—were rained out.

The Mets wasted a strong defensive effort and effective relief pitching by Tug McGraw in Sunday's 5-4, 13-inning loss to St. Louis. But they hung close behind the Pirates, who blew a 3-2 verdict to the Cubs when Matty Alou dropped a two-out fly ball in the ninth to trigger a three-run Chicago rally.

Monday night, New York fell behind 4-0 as rookie Clyde Mayhew ripped a two-run homer off Ray Sadecki in the second inning for his first major league hit and then singled in the fourth to ignite another two-run flurry.

Three walks, three singles and an error by third baseman Ron Fairly booted Bud Harrelson's bunt, then was trapped in a rundown on Tommie Agee's tap to third. But catcher John Bateman's throw hit Gaspar in the hand, and he came on to score the tie-breaking run.

Wayne Garrett's run-scoring double, a walk, Ron Swoboda's sacrifice fly and Donn Clendenon's run-producing single completed the rally, enabling the Mets to square their season series against the last-place Expos at eight victories apiece.

The Dodgers softened up San Diego with a six-run salvo in the first inning and coasted home as Wes Parker drove in three more runs with a single and double. Parker, with 102 RBI, is the first Dodger to top 100 since Tommy Davis and Frank Howard, eight years ago.

Left-hander Claude Osteen survived 11 San Diego hits, including a three-run homer by Ivan Murrell in the ninth, for his 15th victory of the year.

Frank Johnson, a mid-game replacement for ailing Willie McCovey, lined a two-run single off knuckleballer Phil Niekro in the sixth, keying a four-run rally that carried the Giants past the Braves.

Frank Reberger squared his pitching mark at 6-6 with help from veteran Don McMahon, who hurled perfect relief over the final 2 1-3 innings.

Loss Drops Arkansas to 11th Place

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
Stanford's dramatic 34-28 victory over Arkansas last Saturday accounted for the only two changes today in The Associated Press' first weekly poll of the regular season.

The Indians jumped from 10th to fourth, supplanting the Razorbacks, who fell to 11th but are still very much within shooting distance of the Top Ten. Missouri, which walloped Baylor 38-0, rose from 11th to 10th, the only newcomer in the Top Ten.

Ohio State and Texas, which were idle, and Southern California, a 42-21 victor over Alabama, retained the first three spots, but the Trojans are right on the heels of Texas' defending national champs.

Twenty-four of the 40 football writers and broadcasters who participated in the poll cast their first-place votes for Ohio State, which accumulated 728 points. Texas had six No. 1 votes and 657 points while Southern Cal was the top choice of seven voters but managed only 644 points. The other three first-place votes went to Mississippi, Penn State and Michigan.

Rounding out the Top Ten behind No. 4 Stanford are Ole Miss, Notre Dame, Penn State, Michigan, Nebraska and Missouri.

The Second Ten consists of Arkansas, Louisiana State, Kansas State, Florida, Houston, UCLA, West Virginia, Oklahoma, Georgia and Arizona State. Alabama; South Carolina, a 23-20 loser to Georgia Tech, and Auburn, which hasn't opened yet, fell from the Second Ten while Georgia, which also hasn't played yet, moved in. There was a three-way tie for 20th in the preseason poll.

The Top Twenty teams, with first-place votes in parentheses and total points. Points tabulated on basis of 20-18-16-14-12-10-9-8-etc:

Hogs Working to Correct Mistakes

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The Arkansas Razorbacks spent an hour working out in sweat clothes Monday in an attempt to correct the mistakes made in Saturday's 34-28 loss to Stanford.

"We broke down practically every phase of the game there is," said Coach Frank Broyles. "We have to try to eliminate those mistakes this week."

The Razorbacks heard a scouting report for this week's game against Oklahoma State.

Broyles said, however, that most of the day was spent correcting mistakes.

Gibson, St. Louis 21-6, .778, 3.19.
Strikeouts—Seaver, New York 275; Gibson, St. Louis 254.

Monday's Stars
PITCHING—Danny Frisella, Mets, hurled five innings of one-hit relief, retiring the last 15 batters he faced, before New York struck for four runs in the 10th to beat the Montreal Expos 9-5.

BATting—Wes Parker, Dodgers, knocked in three runs with a single and double for a season total of 102 RBI—most for a Los Angeles player since 1962—in a 12-4 victory over San Diego.

ALTHOUGH HE WON'T be expected to land in end zones the same way he landed in drop zones, receiver John McHugh of American International College has the experience to fall back on. A Vietnam veteran, McHugh was the leading pass receiver for AIC last season as a sophomore.

Underdog Plays Best on Television

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Hanging out the college football wash:

Arkansas was favored over Stanford on Saturday ... and that should have been the tip-off.

In the last five television openers on ABC-TV the underdog has won four times and the fifth ended in a tie.

The scores: 1966, Baylor 35, Syracuse 12; 1967, Southern Methodist 20, Texas A&M 17; 1968, favored Tennessee 17, Georgia 17; 1969, Air Force 26, SMU 22, 1970, Stanford 34, Arkansas 28.

The unluckiest person on the unlucky Holy Cross football team—all but the first two games of 1969 were canceled when hepatitis struck the entire squad—has got to be linebacker Bob Cooney.

He was the first one to come down with hepatitis. Healthy come spring, he went out for track and threw his arm out hurling the javelin. Finally, he strained some knee ligaments during football practice and was wearing a cast for Saturday's opener with Army.

When Missouri's Mel Gray caught a short pass Saturday against Baylor, the Bear defenders had "good pursuit angles" on him, according to Coach Bill Beall. Several seconds later, Gray, a champion sprinter, was in the end zone.

"I haven't had much experience coaching players how to catch a 9.2 sprinter," sighed

In Event of Playoff Mets the Home Team

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The New York Mets, baseball's 1969 world champions, will be the home team if they tie Pittsburgh or Chicago to force a National League Eastern Division playoff.

The league office announced a playoff schedule Monday in the event of a two-way tie for first. The possible pairings for an Oct. 2 playoff were determined in a recent drawing.

It would be Pittsburgh at New York, Chicago at New York, or Pittsburgh at Chicago. The game would start at 1 p. m. EDT.

If all three teams tie for first, the team with the best winning percentage during the season against the other two would have the option of taking a first round bye.

Two teams would play Oct. 2, with the winner advancing to an Oct. 3 final game.

Indians Are Tapering Off for Opener

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) — The Arkansas State University Indians began to taper practice sessions Monday in preparation for Saturday's opening encounter with Wichita State University.

The Tribe looked at Wichita's offensive and defensive maneuvers and then worked out in shorts and headgear.

Coach Bennie Ellender said the workout was a "typical Monday practice."

A defeat would mean the end of the road for Patterson. A victory could mean another taste of the big money. If he wins, the Garden will try to interest him in a Jimmy Ellis rematch.

Brown Not Reaching for Panic Button

By GEORGE STRODE
Associated Press Sports Writer
WILMINGTON, Ohio (AP) — Even with star quarterback Greg Cook shelved for the 1970 National Football League season, Cincinnati Bengals' Coach Paul Brown reaches for no panic button.

"We're not trading away future draft choices for stop-gap quarterbacks," Brown warned. "Nobody's going to give you a good player in a trade."

He did make an exception, however, when he gave up an undisclosed draft pick for Buffalo Bills' quarterback Virgil Carter.

The third-year Bengals, wading into NFL competition for the first time Sunday against the Oakland Raiders, will go with Sam Wyche, newcomer Dave Lewis or Carter at quarterback. Cook underwent shoulder surgery last month and has been placed on the injured reserve list for the season.

"We'll go with what we have," Brown said. "If we do poorly, we will have better draft choices in the future. I see no choice."

Wyche hit 50 per cent of his passes, replacing the injured Cook in four games last fall. He has been with the club since its start but lacks the ability to move the offense consistently.

Lewis, a two-year Canadian Football League who flunked a 1969 trial with the New York Giants, presents more of a running threat. The former Montreal Alouettes' flanker and running back, however, hasn't played quarterback for three seasons.

Carter played sparingly with the Chicago Bears in 1969, completing 36 of 71 passes for 343 yards. He started seven games for the Bears in 1968.

Brown hinted the Bengals may go more for running like they did in their first season. That means more work for Paul Robinson, who led the AFL rushers in his rookie season with 1,023 yards. He had only 486 yards last season.

"The Foundation Story," a slide presentation in color was shown and narrated by Dolores McBride at the Hope B & PW club meeting Thursday, September 10 in the Diamond. Many interesting facets of the club's national foundation headquarters were brought to light, and the club members particularly enjoyed seeing the Foundation Director, Lenora Routon Cross, a native of Hope. The public Relations committee, headed by Kate Baker and consisting of the narrator, Lena Maryman, Zora Middlebrooks and Velma Goss, had charge of the arrangements for the meeting, and each made a few remarks about the topic, Public Relations. A report was also given on a Public Relations workshop at the recent national convention on which the club's delegate, Mary Anita Laseter, had taken part.

Club President Mary Andrews, at the zinnia-decorated head table, presented several business matters to the club and welcomed the dinner group of 28 that included 3 guests, Mrs. T.S. McDavitt, Mrs. G. B. Morris and Mrs. Jim Byrd.

Notes From Professional Golf Trail

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Golf Writer
DUBLIN, Ireland (AP) — Notes from the pro golf tournament trail:

This is pro golf's international season. It started last week when Bert Greene and a number of others made the trip to Colombia for a tournament. Then there's the large number of tour regulars in Ireland for the Alcan Championship.

And it continues. England's Tony Jacklin, the reigning U.S. open champ, has a line-up that includes stops in Scotland, then the Picadilly in London, Paris, Argentina, Australia and New Zealand.

Arnold Palmer also will be in Paris Jack Nicklaus will be in Sweden, then Picadilly. Lee Trevino also has Picadilly scheduled, along with Argentina for the World Cup.

Dave Stockton will be in Argentina, Lee Elder in Sweden. It's all possible because of a break in the schedule in the United States. But whether it signals the beginning of a world tour is problematical.

For instance, the John Player Tournament in England a couple of weeks ago, which offered a $60,000 first prize, didn't draw any of the American tourists.

The reason is that PGA rules stipulate that a member of the tournament players division can play in a tournament outside the country that conflicts with a regular PGA event only if he gets permission of the sponsor.

The John Player Tournament conflicted with Hartford, and Hartford sponsors declined to allow the tourists to play in England.

The PGA now is investigating sites for its 1973 National Chamampionship. Chances are good that it will go to Canterbury in Cleveland. The 1971 event will be on the PGA home course in Palm Beach Gardens, Fla., and 1972 at Oakmont in Pittsburgh.

Arnold Palmer has only one more appearance scheduled in the United States this year, when he defends in the Heritage Classic in South Carolina. It's possible that he will play in the Kaiser in Napa, Calif., in October, but that's not definite.

If he doesn't win one of them, it will be the first time in his career he's gone through the season without an individual title. His only triumph this year has been a team effort with Jack Nicklaus in the National Four Ball.

Weather May Hamper America's Cup

By SID MOODY

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — Yachting's World Series starts today under predicted weather conditions that may make them all wish they were water skiing in the Bahamas.

Rain and cool northeasterly weather blew over the America's Cup course off shore Monday and similar conditions are predicted for the 21st defense.

After three years of designing, planning, recruiting and tanning, Intrepid of the New York Yacht Club will face Australia's Gretel II of the Royal Sydney Yacht Squadron in the best-of-seven race series.

Intrepid is the consensus favorite with 43-year-old Californian architect Bill Ficker at the helm.

The Australian challenger, however, represents knowledge gained by two prior Aussie efforts at the cup. They are no strangers to the course over Rhode Island Sound, a combination of two tidal currents plus

National Clubs Final 40 All Set

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The final 40 are set on each National Football League club roster are set, and some familiar names are missing.

The last cuts were made Monday and among those loped off were quarterback Tom Flores, a nine-year veteran by the Kansas City Chiefs, and running back Les Shy, a four-year pro, by the Dallas Cowboys.

Running back Curtis McClinton and offensive lineman Charlie Long also are gone, of their own volition.

McClinton, an eight-year veteran, retired from the Kansas City Chiefs. He gave no reason. Long called it a day with the Boston Patriots after starring as a tackle and guard for nine pro seasons. He will remain with the Patriots, doing scouting and special ticket promotions.

As an abalone shell grows, it adds more holes and the first ones are closed up.

National Conference: SAN FRANCISCO

Nolan

PROSPECTUS—The team that refuses to get untracked. Dick Nolan's on spot this season because he's had enough time to indoctrinate 49ers with his Landry-efficiency concept. They've had good drafts, good veterans and they can't afford to be complacent. But there's a sense of frustration that's almost historical with 49er teams. Looks like more of same in '70.

Johnson

OFFENSE

PASSING—Before he's through, John Brodie will have more comebacks than a night club comedian. But as long as his arm keeps recovering, you can't dump a 34-year-old veteran who has the smarts for in-and-outers such as Steve Spurrier. Injury's the only way it'll change, though Steve's pressing closer to regular job. Rating—B+

RECEIVING—Gene Washington, California's branch of wide receiver, wasted little time establishing himself. He's top grade. Too bad they don't have another. Dick Witcher's respectable veteran on opposite side, but he doesn't catch as much as guys coming out of backfield. Beautiful battle for tight and job between Bob Windsor and soph Ted Kwalick. Should find way to use them both in short yardage situations. Rating—B

RUNNING—Ken Willard delivers steady yardage, and still there's no hope for big breakthrough threat. Doug Cunningham comes closest but lacks size. Jimmy Thomas has size, and streaking ability, but no playing maturity. Bill Tucker, rookie John Isenberger figure, too. Rating—B

LINE—Says something when you can afford to ship off a Howard Mudd, like 49ers did year ago, and not get hurt. Elmer Collett merely stepped up to Pro Bowl class as guard. Expect bigger things from Forrest Blue at center and Cas Bonazek at tackle. Other tackle, Len Rohde, probably doesn't get enough credit. Kevin Hardy, switched from defense, was supposed to help at guard but keeps getting hurt. Rating—B

DEFENSE

LINE—If Cedric Hardman, No. 1 pick, is as good as he says he is, pass rush will get boost. He's got lots of competition at end—Tommy Hart, Bill Belk, Stan Hindman (who's never put it all together yet). Old Charley Krueger, almost-as-old Roland Lakes, just keep rolling along in the interior. Rating—B

LINEBACKING—Got jolt year ago when Ed Beard decked with knee surgery. Now he's got to win middle job back from Frank Nunley. The man with reputation on the strong side is Dave Wilcox. Skip Vanderbundt, opposite number, shoved Matt Hazeltine into retirement and has no real challengers in sight. Rating—B

SECONDARY—Must have had plenty of advance word on Bruce Taylor, All-Star game whiz, because they got rid of Kermit Alexander. So Taylor has open shot at joining all-pro Jim Johnson as corner duo. Ex-Bear Rosey Taylor's trying to find new life as safety, with Mel Phillips rated most likely to be his mate. Rating—B

KICKING—New deal with Bruce Gossett (from Rams for Alexander) as place-kicker. Proven quality. Punting's still up in air, or down on ground, with Spurrier probable, Isenberger possible. Rating—B

PREDICTION

Lost in Western division. Based on recent history.

Q—Is there such a thing as a paralyzed bladder?

What causes it?
A—A paralyzed or neurogenic bladder may be the result of multiple sclerosis, cerebral hemorrhage or an injury to the spinal cord. If no obstruction is present, such a bladder becomes overdistended, then overflows but never empties. The chief complication is bladder infection.

Culbertson and Sims were bitter rivals in the bridge business but never let their rivalry interfere with a great personal friendship.

Ely called Hal "Maestro" and Hal called Ely "Professor."

In today's hand the Professor sat North and the Maestro, South.

In those days four-card suits were bid indiscriminately and there was a tendency to rebid a five-card suit almost automatically.

The Professor taught this to his pupils but he saw no reason to follow his own teaching here. The Maestro had bid four no-trump. He was going to play the hand somewhere in no-trump. Why waste a round of bidding?

The play was even quicker than the bidding. Hal won the first trick with dummy's king of diamonds. Then he led a heart to his ace, West's queen dropped and it was a matter of seconds for Hal to concede a trick to East's 10 and claim his slam.

The Maestro's play of the heart suit would be routine for any one of a thousand or more players today. Back in 1930 it is doubtful if more than a corporal's guard of experts knew this safety play.

Hal needed four heart tricks to make his contract. If hearts were going to break 5-0 then four tricks were not available. If they broke 3-2 any line of play would succeed. If they broke 4-1 then this play would guarantee four tricks for declarer against any 4-1 combination.

If the queen had not dropped, Hal would have returned to dummy and led a heart toward his jack. We'll leave it to you to work out the rest of the play.

Reportedly Bumpers for Purcell

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — There was speculation Monday that Dale Bumpers of Charleston, the Democratic gubernatorial nominee, would recommend that the state Democratic party name Atty. Gen. Joe Purcell as state party chairman.

The convention, which traditionally follows the wishes of the gubernatorial nominee in selecting chairmen, meets Friday and Saturday in Little Rock. Charles D. Matthews of North Little Rock, the current chairman, has told Bumpers he does not want the job again.

Bumpers declined to comment Monday on his choice for the party chairmanship and Purcell, who reportedly was in Little Rock Monday night, could not be reached for comment.

Jerry Pinson, who managed Purcell's unsuccessful campaign for governor, emerged from an apartment house suite occupied by Bumpers' campaign strategists and was non-committal when asked about the reports that Purcell was in line for the job.

Bumpers, who came out of the same suite shortly after Pinson, said he had talked to Purcell several times since the election and added, "but not necessarily about the party chairmanship."

Purcell ran third, about 4,300 votes behind Bumpers, in the eight-man preferential primary to choose a Democratic gubernatorial nominee. He endorsed Bumpers' successful runoff campaign against former Gov. Orval E. Faubus.

Asked about Pinson's presence in the suite, Bumpers said he was not aware of Pinson's presence.

Reports about Purcell began to circulate over the weekend. Matthews was among those who said he had heard the speculation, but he said he had not confirmed it.

Among those meeting in the Little Rock suite Monday were former Little Rock Mayor Martin Borchert; Frank Whitbeck, an unsuccessful Democratic candidate for governor in 1968, and state Rep. Cal Ledbetter of Little Rock.

UAW STRIKE

The only other major strike against GM lasted 113 days in 1945-46. That was the longest national work stoppage ever in the industry.

The strike comes just as GM is introducing its 1971 models, including the subcompact Vega 2300, designed to help fight off the challenge of imported small cars.

GM's inventory of new cars is expected to last eight weeks.

UAW President Leonard Woodcock severely criticized the GM contract offer and said the automaker "held out no other choice" but to strike.

Earl Bramblett, GM vice president in charge of personnel and the firm's chief negotiator, said the UAW's action was a "strike against reason." He described the GM contract offer as an "economic proposal that is unprecedented in our history in the size and scope of its benefits."

Woodcock asserted that "Chrysler was turned away from a settlement" by "pressure exerted by GM."

But the UAW said Sunday Chrysler would not be an immediate strike target.

Ford Motor Co. was told two weeks ago it would not be struck.

Contracts covering 713,000 workers at the Big Three automakers expired at midnight Monday. The American Motors contract expires October 16.

Bramblett said GM conservatively estimated that the UAW's demands in costs and fringe benefits amounted to "more than $2.65 an hour, or an increase of over 45 per cent over a three-year period."

Egypt Says U.S. Blocking Peace Talks

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Egypt says the United States is blocking the Middle East peace talks by backing Israel but that Cairo will not let Palestinian hijackers "jeopardize the peace-seeking efforts of the Arabs."

Egyptian Foreign Minister Mahmoud Riad said in Cairo Monday that America's support of Israeli charges of Egyptian cease-fire violations is to blame for the current "political standstill" in the Middle East. He added that the charges were "baseless."

Israel issued its 14th complaint Monday that Egypt has violated the U.S.-sponsored agreement by moving Egyptian-manned SAM2 antiaircraft missiles and Russian-manned SAM3 missiles closer to the Suez Canal.

Riad also reiterated Egypt's charge that Washington has broken a promise to withhold Phantom jets and other arms from Israel during the cease-fire. American officials have denied there was any such promise and have maintained that the United States has a publicly declared obligation to maintain the Middle East arms balance by counteracting the flow of Soviet arms to Egypt.

Cairo Radio said Monday that "Egypt will not allow a Palestinian maverick group to jeopardize the peace-seeking efforts of the Arabs and justify Israel's demand for additional arms to be used against the Arabs."

The Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine is holding hostages from three hijacked airliners.

Cairo Radio also said the forthcoming talks between Israeli Premier Golda Meir and President Nixon will "surely aid Cairo on the hijackings" and the perils which the Israelis and the rest of the world face at the hands of the Palestinian commandos." Mrs. Meir is scheduled to meet with Nixon Friday in Washington.

Riad's office said he had postponed a visit to the United States. He had been scheduled to lead Egypt's delegation to the U.N. General Assembly's 25th anniversary session, which opens today. No explanation was given for the change. U.S. Secretary of State William P. Rogers was also scheduled to attend the opening session, but postponed his arrival until the weekend because of Middle East developments, and the talks between Nixon and Mrs. Meir, the State Department said.

In New York, U.N. Secretary-General U Thant said in a statement prepared for today's General Assembly session that the Soviet Union and the United States should take joint action to end the Middle East conflict.

Pennsylvania Bank Lowers Interest Rate

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The First Pennsylvania Banking and Trust Co., the nation's oldest bank, has cut its prime interest rate by one-half point.

By doing so it became the first big American bank to adopt a 7½ per cent interest charge on loans to blue chip borrowers during 1970.

The reduction is effective today. The move drew widespread attention in the financial community but no other banks followed suit immediately.

Two years ago, First Pennsylvania, the city's largest bank, was the first to drop its prime rate to 6½ per cent. Other banks followed suit two weeks later.

The prime rate is the interest a bank charges large corporate customers. Many economists have said a prime-rate reduction would stimulate the economy and create new jobs.

When the move was announced Monday, many stock the hijacker had passed a note to him reading: "I have a gun and want to go to North Korea."

It was not known if the hijacker was actually armed.

De Nisco, Brinks said, was carrying an undetermined amount of securities from Los Angeles to San Francisco.

The plane, flight 15 from Los Angeles, had landed at 6:06 a.m. and the pilot advised the tower that a white male passenger had told him: "This plane is being hijacked. It will be going farther."

The pilot said there were 17 aboard, plus the crew.

At 7:04 a.m. the pilot reported that one shot had been fired inside the plane.

After the plane set down, it was directed to an outer runway away from the passenger terminal while sheriff's deputies and airport security officers rushed to the area. The pilot radioed that officers should stay inside their vehicles.

Denies Watson Chapel Delay Motion

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — U.S. District Court Judge Oren Harris of El Dorado denied Monday a motion by the Watson Chapel School District to delay a decision or hearing on the district's desegregation case.

The district had asked Thursday for a delay until the U.S. Supreme Court defines a "unitary school" and "busing to obtain racial balance."

Watson Chapel is one of nine school districts that were sued by the Justice Department for failure to comply with the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

Harris said the motion to delay was without merit in view of the status of the proceedings.

prices spurted ahead. When other banks did not follow suit, prices dropped again, and closed below the opening prices.

Announcing the 1971 Duster.

The big difference in small cars.

We first introduced the Duster as the best transportation bargain in America. It still is. And we built Duster to be America's "small-enough-but-big-enough" car. And it still is.

Small car lovers of America, your day has come. You have more tires to kick, more doors to slam, more hoods to look under, more colors to choose from and more test drives to take than ever before.

Which leaves us to convince you that Duster gives you the most car for the money. That it's small enough, but big enough. And that, all in all, it's the ideal small car.

Room. More of it to accommodate more passengers. More of it to accommodate more luggage.

Most small cars are four-passenger cars. And when you sit in some of them, they feel like they were built for three-and-a-half passengers.

Duster's a five-passenger car. It seats five comfortably. Besides carrying more up front, Duster carries more in the trunk. You can stuff 15.9 cubic feet of stuff into it. (One of the new small cars has about a third as much trunk space.)

Small enough for maneuverability. Big enough for stability.

Duster's small enough to slip into about ¾ of a parking space. Yet it's big enough to give you stability on the open highway. It has our unique torsion-bar suspension (for better handling). And unibody construction — its strength completely surrounds you. So Duster can handle stop-and-go city traffic as well as freeway traffic because it's the right size, the right weight and it handles.

Our small-enough-but-big-enough car has a small-enough-but-big-enough engine.

Duster's standard engine is our rugged 198 cubic inch, 125-horsepower Six. It gives you great gas mileage and a little more power than other small cars' smaller engines. And that's a perfect combination.

Options. You have over 50 to choose from when you order a Duster.

Think of it this way. It's a convenience to have a lot of conveniences to choose from. If you're considering buying a new small car, and you have certain options in mind to go along with it, you may find Duster the only small car that offers them.

There are things like a Stereo Cassette Tape Player, V-8 engine, vinyl roof and power brakes that you just can't get on some small cars.

No doubt about it. Duster is the car for the times. Over 175,000 Duster buyers thought so last year. And we expect more of the same kind of success with the 1971 Duster. Before you buy a small car, look at our small car.

Duster. Built and engineered with extra care.

Coming Through.

New Orleans Police Move in on Rioters

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — Police urged residents of a predominantly Negro housing project to vacate their homes early today as officers prepared to move into the area to arrest those responsible for what police called a "systematic reign of terror."

Police Chief Clarence Giarrusso said felony arrest warrants were being held for many members of the Black Panther party and that the arrests would be made.

Police said Black Panthers beat two Negro men and fired at police and fire units Monday night. Giarrusso said the Panthers also burned two automobiles and dumped them into a canal.

"If these persons resist violently, and we have every reason to believe that they will, we shall use every means at our disposal to bring about their arrest," Giarrusso said as police prepared to move into the housing project area.

He said "observers" reported before dawn that 10 to 15 persons had taken up sniper positions around the Panther headquarters in the Desire Street Housing Project.

The police chief listed these incidents Monday night in the area as part of a "systematic reign of terror."

Two Negro men were severely beaten. Two uniformed policemen were fired on and injured by flying glass.

A man and his wife were dragged from their auto and severely beaten.

Two residents of the housing project were wounded by sniper fire.

Two automobiles were burned and dumped into a canal.

Police said the two Negro men reportedly were pistol-whipped and one was stabbed before they escaped from a heavily barricaded Black Panther headquarters.

Officers said missiles were thrown at firemen, who tried to put out the auto fires.

The two men who were beaten were taken to Charity Hospital, where one was reported in serious condition. Police did not identify either man.

Both of the patrolmen fired at in the police car were Negroes and were identified as officers Raymond Reed and Joseph Orlick.

Officers said they did not know if anyone other than Black Panthers were involved in the incident.

Two Killed in Wreck in White County

GRIFFITHVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Two persons were killed and another injured Monday night in a three-car collision on Arkansas 11 one mile east of Griffithville (White County).

Dead are Mary Johnson, 19, of Griffithville and C. A. Calhoun, 18, of Searcy. Authorities said Douglas R. Harris, 20, of Griffithville was injured.

State Police said Miss Johnson was a passenger in a vehicle driven by Harris.

26 Charged With Election Violations

FORDYCE, Ark. (AP) — Dallas County Sheriff Clary Atkinson said Monday that 26 residents of the county had been charged with voting irregularities.

Atkinson said the 26 were accused of voting in both the Republican and Democratic primaries last Aug. 25. The 26 are scheduled to appear in Justice of the Peace Court here Sept. 26.

The charge is a felony but Atkinson said this may be reduced to a misdemeanor.

More than 100 persons were charged recently with the same violation in several East Arkansas counties.

UAW Strikes General Motors, Thousands of Workers Are Idled

By LOWELL MCKIRGAN Associated Press Writer DETROIT (AP) — The United Auto Workers went on strike against General Motors Corp. today, choking off car production by the world's largest manufacturing firm and idling hundreds of thousands of workers in the United States and Canada.

Pickets were posted around GM facilities in 31 states and two Canadian provinces after last-minute negotiations failed to produce a new, pattern-setting contract for the auto industry.

Both GM and the union said they were far apart on reaching a new contract, but pledged talks to make the strike as short as possible. They said they would try for another meeting Wednesday.

However, some union and industry sources predicted the strike would be lengthy, and might exhaust the UAW's $120 million strike fund. Union officials said the strike funds would last seven to eight weeks, with the 344,000 workers on strike drawing up to $40 weekly each.

The strike is the first national shutdown of GM since 1964, when failure to agree on a new contract closed the firm for 10

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation has gotten at least a week's respite in its third railroad labor crisis this year following a federal judge's order forbidding a strike.

Although four AFL-CIO unions had called the strike against only three lines, chief railroad negotiator John P. Hiltz had indicated the entire industry would have shut down in a retaliatory lockout.

The last-minute temporary restraining order by U.S. District Judge Howard F. Corcoran forbidding the 12:01 a.m. strike appeared to freeze the dispute until 1:45 p.m. Sept. 23. He set a hearing for Sept. 22.

The wage dispute involves some 500,000 workers on all rail lines.

In spite of the antistrike order, there was picketing in several cities during the post-midnight hours against the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway, and the Southern Pacific.

"The carriers have demonstrated absolute inflexibility," said C. L. Dennis, President of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks, in breaking off government-sponsored negotiations and announcing the strike plans.

He said the railroads had refused to budge from a one-year, 7 per cent wage hike offer, compared with union demands of 40 per cent or more over three years. The workers now average about $3.50 per hour.

Dennis was backed in the strike call by President Charles Luna of the United Transportation Union, President Harold Crotty of the Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees and Vice President Richard Smith of the Hotel and Restaurant Employees.

If You Think You Have Troubles Look Back to Days of Ancestors

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Jumping to conclusions:

Thinking of life and its furbelows, one is tempted now and then in the prevalence of his own troubles to think of the problems of his ancestors. Their set faces of yesterday in the family album achieve a wistful prominence. We know them only by gossip and must guess about their true faces, but if we could with our later knowledge have made their earlier decisions for them, our own lives might be so much more secure. And they could have been happier. Or so we may dream.

That's one of the more provocative things about life: Our guesstimates usually interest us more than the available testimony.

The best of all possible wars is the one a fellow finishes himself and his sons won't have to fight later.

Any girl Friday who takes more than one martini at lunch has a boss who takes more than two—or did before he was replaced.

One of the differences between masculine and feminine eating is this: Generally speaking, women like foods they can tamper with, peel, or make gestures of ceremony with. Men like to grab and chew or gulp.

What age forsakes, youth in its next time will too.

One of the surest things about red-haired girls, whether they reflect the performance of nature or the miracle of the drug store, is that, whatever they do or don't do, they will be more talked about than if their hair were blue.

An old-timer is a fellow who can remember when somebody could say something at a cocktail party that would make a girl blush rather than argue.

September is one of the most interesting sports months of the year. It is when pro baseball at last performs its recluses—and pro football exercises its errors.

Few things keep a man busier in his lifetime than an idle dream.

Man, the only animal on earth who vocally criticizes his work, is also the only one permitted to have a vacation from it—and to lie about that vacation. He feels impelled upon his return to brag about how wonderful it was, although it might not have been wonderful at all. He feels impelled to say that his step away from the job was more fun than staying on the job, which often it isn't at all. He is really only too happy to be back, although he'd rather die than admit it. The girl in the office who had the best vacation isn't the one who planned it vastly, or sent the most postcards, but she who greets every query about it later with a distant look and a smug smile.

Miss Arkansas County Named

DEWITT, Ark. (AP) — Miss Brooks Oliver, 17, of Stuttgart was named Miss Arkansas County Monday night at the 31st annual Arkansas County Livestock Show here.

Miss Oliver is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Oliver. The livestock show will continue through Saturday.

S. Vietnam Closes Bases for Monsoons

SAIGON (AP) — Enemy troops again halted a government attempt to recapture an important part of Cambodia's heartland today, and in South Vietnam's northern quarter fighting broke out at five places.

As the new fighting was reported, the U.S. Command announced more troop withdrawals from Vietnam that will cut American strength by more than 3,000, and the South Vietnamese announced the withdrawal of 1,500 of their troops from Cambodian operations.

In Cambodia, a force of North Vietnamese and Viet Cong troops entrenched 45 miles north of Phnom Penh and a bridge destroyed by enemy commandos stalled the Cambodian drive.

A spokesman for the Cambodian military command said it was up to the commander on the scene whether his forces would again advance toward the village of Taing Kauk.

A regiment of North Vietnamese and Viet Cong turned back the spearhead of the biggest Cambodian offensive of the war at Taing Kauk Sunday and Monday, killing 26 Cambodian troops and wounding nearly 100.

The Cambodians sent reinforcements into the area, but the communist command was also reported reinforcing and resupplying its troops in Taing Kauk.

The spokesman said there had been no action on the battle front overnight.

Associated Press correspondent John T. Wheeler reported from Phnom Penh that 600 refugees had been flown to the capital from the besieged provincial capital of Kompong Thom, 80 miles to the north. Kompong Thom is the object of the current Cambodian drive, but one commander said, "I don't think we'll ever get to Kompong Thom."

The spokesman reported that only a small number of civilians remained in Kompong Thom.

South Vietnamese headquarters reported that its forces had closed out a 24-day Cambodian operation near Neak Luong, 40 miles southeast of Phnom Penh. A spokesman said 35 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong troops were killed in the operation and that two South Vietnamese were killed. He said the end of the operation reduced South Vietnamese strength in Cambodia from 15,000 to 13,500 troops.

In the northern part of South Vietnam, North Vietnamese troops kept up their siege of Fire Base O'Reilly and clashed with government forces near artillery base Barnett, 10 miles to the northwest.

American bombers kept up their heavy raids against North Vietnamese gun positions around O'Reilly and Barnett in efforts to prevent a massive North Vietnamese assault on the bases.

On her return home, Miss Connelly visited with the Arkansas congressional delegation.

She was scheduled to arrive in Little Rock at 8:03 tonight.

Nixon Slates Foreign Aid Message

By LEWIS GULICK Associated Press Writer WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon scheduled a message for Congress today, seeking a massive overhaul of the increasingly troubled U.S. foreign aid program.

The new-look aid setup of the future, as envisioned in Nixon's blueprint, would dismantle the Agency for International Development—AID—system of the 1960s and stress international development institutions as a means of sending economic help abroad. No cost figure was expected.

The aim of the presidential message at this time, aides said, is to give Congress ideas for legislation to be acted on next year.

Nixon already has sent the executive branch's regular global aid request to Congress for this fiscal year, and as usual it is in deep difficulty. The House chopped a half-billion dollars off the $2.15 billion program. The Senate has yet to act.

Still other administration aid requests may be in the offing. Secretary of State William P. Rogers has indicated large-scale economic help may be sought for South Vietnam and a program for Cambodia.

The administration has made plain, however, that the Nixon doctrine of U.S. military pullbacks from Asia envisions continued sizable American economic help until the Asian lands affected can stand on their own.

And the Peterson report—the main source of Nixon's new recommendations—calls for a reversal of the downward trend in economic development assistance that has marked the U.S. program in recent years. Such aid should be separated from military and security assistance, the report said.

Nixon has broadly endorsed the study issued last March by his foreign aid task force under former Bank of America President Rudolph A. Peterson. The study emphasized self-help and use of private enterprise and international institutions.

It advocated a sharp paring of U.S. aid missions overseas and proposed that instead of AID—the single aid-administering agency created by the Kennedy administration—there be:

—A U.S. International Development Bank, an independent government corporation starting with $2 billion in federal funds.

—A U.S. International Development Institute to seek new ways for science and technology to assist developing nations.

—An Overseas Private Investment Corp. to use U.S. private enterprise in behalf of international development.

—A U.S. International Development Council to form policy and coordinate aid activities.

Arabs List 13 Specific Prisoners Israel Must Free for 54 Hostages

White House Rebuke Aimed at Israel

By LEE BYRD Associated Press Writer WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House has decried "the holding of hostages by any nation or group" in a rebuke apparently aimed at Israel as well as the Palestinian guerrillas.

Meanwhile, Monday, the government rejected the commandos' claim that they had reason to regard their remaining hijack prisoners as Israelis, even though several may hold citizenship papers elsewhere.

The State Department said as many as 38 Americans could be among the group, thought to number around 55, still held by the guerrillas in the aftermath of four airliner hijackings.

The plights of the Americans obviously was the triggering force behind a denunciation that was carefully worded—and revised—by White House press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler.

But his statement also was viewed as a slap at Israel's detention of 375 Arabs. Israeli forces originally took 450 Arabs into custody over the weekend, but later freed 75.

"We deplore and denounce the holding of hostages by any nation or group," Ziegler said. "The illegal detention of United States citizens in a dispute involving another nation is particularly reprehensible."

Ziegler also declared, "The bearer of a United States passport carries with him prima facie evidence of United States citizenship."

And he added: "The United States rejects any attempt to establish distinctions among its citizens on any basis whatever."

In other developments, President Nixon formally asked Congress for an extra $28 million for the recruiting and training of 2,500 security guards to ride commercial airplanes.

At the same time, the Department of Transportation was shaping a bid for the legislative authority to provide such security "on United States flag carriers."
